

Read to a stuffed animal

Read your book two times,
practicing your fluency or Practice your "snap words"
with your furry friend.
(see below)

Create a puppet of your favorite character

Write 2-3 sentences about your character. Decide how your character would act and talk. Put on a puppet show.

That's my opinion!

What's your favorite food?

Write about your favorite food. Remember to give reasons and examples.

My Favorite Room

Draw a picture of a room in your home.

Add labels to the picture.
Listen for blends, digraphs,
short vowels, and long vowels.

Talk about it!

If you could have any super power, what would it be and why?

Read a story

Fold a white piece of paper into thirds.
Retell the story with words and pictures, including the beginning, middle, and end.

Learn something new!

Read a nonfiction book.
Write 3 things you learned and 1 question you have.

Word Hunt

Go on a hunt looking for things that start with S.

Use your best spelling to record the items you find.
Try another letter.

Listen to a Story

Draw a picture of your favorite part.

First Grade ELA Tic-Tac-Toe

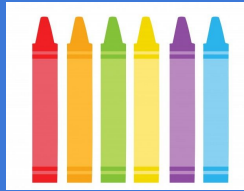

Week 2

Read to someone

Read your book two times, practicing your fluency or practice your “snap words” with someone. (see below)

Create a new cover

Design a new cover for a book. Draw a picture that matches the BIG idea.

That's my opinion!

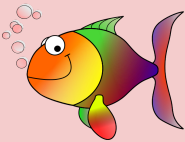

What's your favorite activity?

Write about your favorite activity. Remember to give reasons and examples.

Picture time!

Draw an under the sea picture.

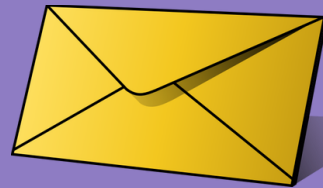

Add labels to the picture. Listen for blends, digraphs, short vowels, and long vowels.

Talk about it!

If animals could talk, what would they say?

Write a letter

Write a letter to someone sharing what you have been doing.

Write about it!

If I could be any animal I would be...

Word Hunt

Go on a hunt looking for things that start with M.

Use your best spelling to record the items you find. Try another letter.

Listen to a Story
