

Grade 10-11

Distance Learning Module 2: Week of: April 6-9 (Passover & Good Friday are celebrated this week)

Content Area: French 3 - Modified from - Unit 3 - Les Fables

Targeted Goals from Stage 1: Desired Results

Content Knowledge: Students will access prior knowledge as they learn to read and interpret stories in French and will deepen their knowledge of storytelling across different cultures. Students will complete research on the three big writers responsible for the body of literature we are studying: Charles Perrault, Jean de la Fontaine and Aesop and be able to discuss them with the teacher and one another.

Vocabulary: in stories, accessed from prior units, especially the adjectives handout from Unité 1.

Skills: S1. Reading and interpreting texts at the intermediate level. S2. Deciding between the past tenses in context in creating and learning francophone stories and responses.

Expectation: Students will be able to read and interpret familiar childhood stories and fairy tales and will be introduced to new stories from other francophone cultures. Students will also perform research and learn about three critically important writers of this genre.
